

EP. 121 NFL CRO RENIE ANDERSON

WITH HOST DON YAEGER

(3:45) Reflection Question: There are different stages in our career and in each stage you have to ask this question: "What am I willing to sacrifice right now?" List your priorities below and reflect on what you are willing to sacrifice for professional advancement.

(12:10) "Fake it 'til you make it" is more about finding _____ to solve problems and surrounding yourself with the experts in the space to figure out how to move forward.

(22:00) If you're not _____, that's the biggest problem.... I realized early in my career that if I put my pride to the side and opened myself to growing, there was a lot I could learn about the cadence of work life. For example, how to handle a frustrating situation and remain calm when someone across the table is unprofessional.

(22:30) Reflection Question: What is your greatest professional weakness? Name two people around you that help you in that area.

(25:15) I always check in on the team, just so they know that I'm here and that I'm wanting to encourage them. Because if they're doing great than I'm doing great, if they are not doing great, then I'm not doing great. It's a _____.

Answers:
