

EP. 155 BEACON POINTE CEO SHANNON EUSEY WITH HOST DON YAEGER

(10:30) If we were not _____, we were running lines. He taught us the value of other people's time.

(12:00) Reflection Question: Shannon's volleyball coach "listened to his team" and was open to the possibility of new plays. As a leader, do you feel you have all the best answers? Name one way you can open up the floor this week to ask your team's opinion.

(12:50) Let's _____ one another. Let's see how we can be better, and I don't excuse myself from that conversation. I meet with every new employee that joins the organization.

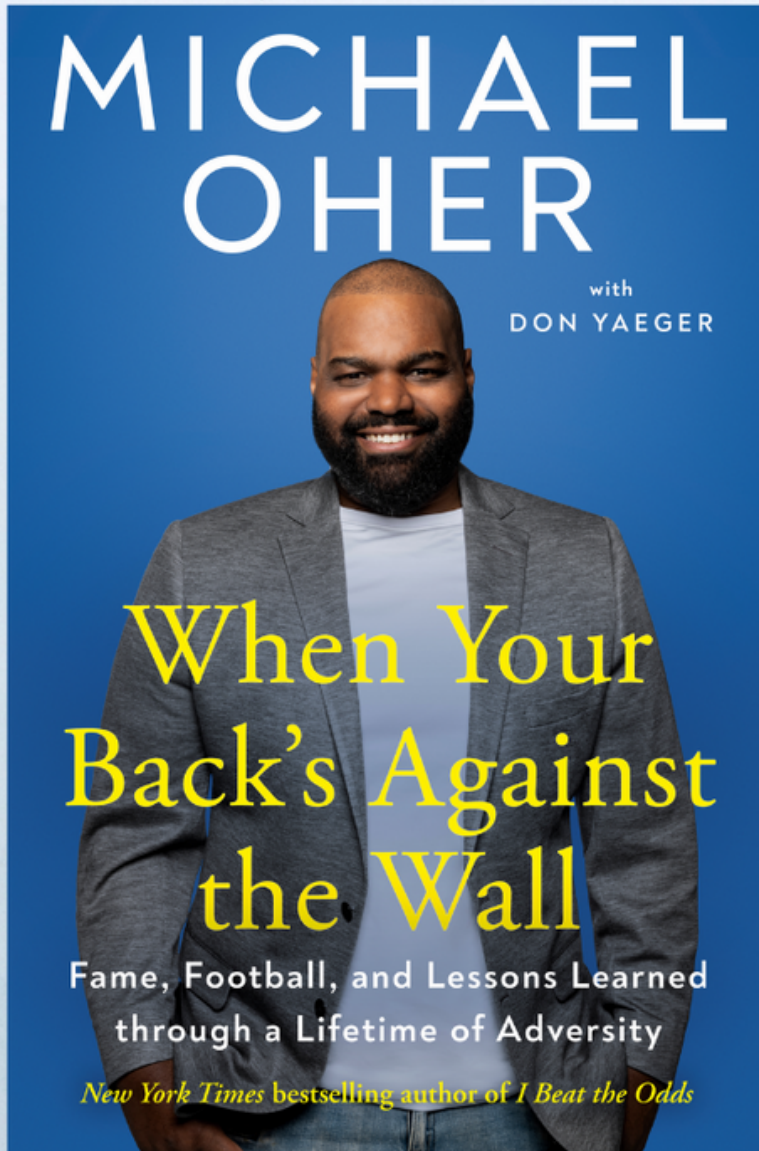

(17:20) Really good leadership come from knowing what you _____ and being able to pass that along to other people in the organization.

(17:50) I was Chief Executive Officer, but I feel like today I am Chief _____ Officer.

Answers:

ten minutes early challenge
don't know Encouragement

Visit OherFoundation.org to learn more about Michael's work in the community.

AVAILABLE NOW GET YOUR COPY

SCAN ME

