

AOL FOUNDER STEVE CASE WITH HOST DON YAEGER

Don's favorite quotes from the episode:

- “Are you more fascinated by the challenge of maximizing what might go right or by reducing the number of things that can go wrong?”
- “It's not enough to have the right idea. You also have to have the right team working together in the right way on the right set of priorities.”
- “I tend to look at things and see what's possible, as opposed to see what not possible. As an entrepreneur, I look at a problem and turn it into an opportunity. I look at why it might be successful, as opposed to why it might fail.”

Reflection Questions:

What makes you tick? What really drives you?

What excites you? What animates you?

How can you incorporate elements of your answers above into your job?
