

ETHAN ALLEN CEO FAROOQ KATHWARI

WITH HOST DON YAEGER

Don's favorite quotes from the episode:

- Work hard and assume that what you're doing now is the only job you'll ever have. Don't wait to be promoted to decide to start working with passion.
- Tomorrow's bright future is built on the good habits that you prioritize today.
- In my 35 years as CEO of Ethan Allen I've learned that burnout happens when you are focusing on too many things at once.

Reflection Questions: In light of Farooq's reports, what would yours look like for your organization? Answer the following questions:

What did you do this month to enhance your talent and service?

What did you do this month to expand your marketing within the team or community?

What did you do this month to improve technology or processes?

What did you do this month to advance social responsibility?
