

NUCOR EXECUTIVE TABITHA STINE

WITH HOST DON YAEGER

Don's favorite quotes from the episode:

- If you come in with an attitude that isn't positive, that doesn't instill belief in others, you'll quickly realize—you're not going to win.
- I keep a sticky note on my computer that says, "Delegate." It's a reminder that you can't do everything yourself. Ask yourself: What's the one thing only I can do? Everything else is an opportunity to help someone else grow.
- You have a voice, and you deserve to be heard. Real leadership is about bringing your unique perspective to the table.

Reflection Questions: How do you currently recognize when someone's attitude starts to dip, and what steps do you take to address it?

Is there an upcoming opportunity where you can create a team identity like Tabitha's volleyball team?
