

GREAT TEAMMATES ARE...

- 1 Humble
They don't require the spotlight to feel important.
- 2 Fully Engaged
They are "in" the moment at all times regardless of rank, status, or playing time.
- 3 Encouraging
They notice the success of others.
- 4 Respected
They command respect and are willing to speak the kind of truth that holds people accountable.
- 5 Reliable
Everyone knows what to expect from them.
- 6 Problem Solvers
They don't point fingers, instead they ask "Where do we go now?"
- 7 Resourceful
They share what they learn and embrace a mentoring role.
- 8 Willing to Sacrifice
They are not above doing the dirty work.
- 9 Positive
They look for the good in key situations, especially when others go negative.
- 10 Communicators
They seem to always have the right words at the right time.
- 11 Relationship-Builders
They build camaraderie with "all" members of the team.
- 12 Honest
They are trusted and their motives are "team-first".
- 13 Hard Workers
They have an incredible work ethic; preparing for tough tasks excites them.
- 14 Always Ready
They remain available to step up and succeed at a moment's notice.
- 15 Competitors
They feel that winning requires nothing less than maximum effort.
- 16 Fun
Others want to be around them.

"To work on being a Great Teammate, you must be HONEST with yourself."

— GREAT — TEAMMATE

Did you leave any boxes unchecked on the other side?

Compare with your team in order to better understand your role as a Great Teammate.

To learn more about the habits of GREAT TEAMMATES, text your name and email to

(850) 583-9832

Great winners study
Great winners.

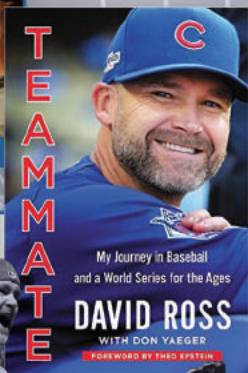

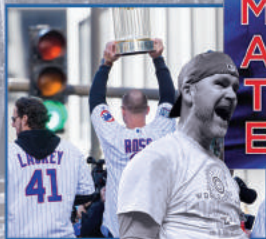

Have Don bring these lessons to you.

DONYAAGER.COM/TEAMMATE

Don and David Ross

FOLLOW DON YAEGER

